

The Swedish American Chambers of Commerce of the USA, Inc. (SACC-USA) is the umbrella organization for 20 regional chambers and offices across the USA and in Sweden. It is based in Washington D.C. and in Stockholm.

Membership in SACC-USA is $6,000 annually. Members can avail themselves of the following programs and services.

TRANSATLANTIC DAY

A SACC-USA membership includes participation in the SACC flagship event Transatlantic Day in Stockholm every March (individual tickets for non-members are $5,000). The Day convenes high profiles, from SACC-USA Patron H.R.H. Prince Daniel, Ministers and Ambassadors to CEOs, Academic Leadership and astronauts for a day and evening of exchange under Chatham House Rules.

EXECUTIVE FORUM

A SACC-USA membership includes participation in the SACC flagship event Executive Forum in Washington D.C. every May (individual tickets for non-members are $3,000). The Forum convenes thought leaders from government, academia, and business and range of thematic and industrial sectors for a day of TED-style talks, roundtables, media interviews and networking, bookended by a dinner prior and one after the event.

SACC Summit

A SACC-USA membership includes participation in the 2-day SACC Summit which ambulates between different regions and takes place every September. In addition to the 20 regional SACC chambers and offices external guests join for a day of panels, presentations, and networking. The internal segment/day is akin to an annual general meeting. The Summit is a great opportunity to meet SACC regions and members to learn about the business climate in different regions in the US.

GREEN AND BLUE ECONOMY PROGRAM

A joint initiative with the US Chamber of Commerce offspring Institute for Sustainable Development which pairs Swedish innovation with US market and capital. The Program identifies and promotes Swedish innovation supporting the green transition in the US and offers shark tank competitions for start-ups and trade fair style events for scale ups. Members are invited to participate in the Program at no charge.

THE SIREUS PROGRAM

SIREUS (S for Students, I for Innovators, R for Researchers and E for Entrepreneurs between US and Sweden). SIREUS is a platform for increased talent mobility and knowledge exchange between Sweden and the U.S. in innovation, science, and entrepreneurship. Activities include various forums such as the SIREUS Members forum, SIREUS Research forum and the SIREUS Entrepreneurs forum in different US locations, Study in Sweden fairs, roundtables with academic institutions, research webinars and thematic and industry sector specific conferences and workshops on R&D. SACC-USA members who are not SIREUS members may have the option to participate in a SIREUS activity at a discounted rate.

BUSINESS SERVICES

Members have access to curated trade delegations to the US capital and to different regions as well as public policy analysis as commissioned by SACC-USA. Members benefit through a better understanding of federal and state legislation in the pipeline and their implications. SACC-USA also tailors topical networking events for different member categories. Additionally, SACC-USA connects members with Congressional leaders and staffers and trade associations for incisive and regular briefs in-person, in online meetings or in the form of specialized newsletters.

BUSINESS AWARD

The SACC-USA Business Award is awarded to members demonstrating exceptional performance on the US market. Members on the Nomination Committee are afforded a unique insider's view to start and scale up enterprising and US market conditions.

TRAINEE AND TALENT MOBILITY PROGRAM

SACC-USA is a J-1 visa sponsor designated by the US State Department and has since inception of the SACC-USA Trainee Program sourced and placed some 1,500 Swedish trainees in companies and other organizations in the US. Research fellows, scholars and summer workers are also eligible for the J-1 visa program. Former trainees can join the Alumni Association for lifelong networking, friendship and learning.

WEBSITE AND SOCIAL MEDIA

Members are visible on SACC-USA social media channels and on the SACC-USA website which also features transatlantic news and policy analysis and a member only portal with resources such as the SACC countrywide Membership Directory.

NEWSLETTER

The monthly e-Currents Newsletter is free for members and is a rich source of transatlantic economic and industry news along with popular Op-eds by renowned journalists, authors, and pundits.

MEETING SPACE

Members can avail themselves to exclusive meeting space in House of Sweden where the Swedish Embassy and SACC-USA have offices. Meeting space is either free or can be rented at a steep discount depending on the activity.
